Mr. A. Warhol
1342 Lexington Avenue
New York, New York

Dear Mr. Warhol:

I have followed your career for some time. Your work has evoked a great deal of interest here at Campbell Soup Company for obvious reasons.

At one time I had hoped to be able to acquire one of your Campbell Soup label paintings - but I'm afraid you have gotten much too expensive for me.

I did want to tell you, however, that we admired your work and I have since learned that you like Tomato Soup. I am taking the liberty of having a couple of cases of our Tomato Soup delivered to you at this address.

We wish you continued success and good fortune.

Cordially,

William P. MacFarland
Product Marketing Manager

Wait, WHAT? So Campbell's soup didn't get all bu++ hurt that someone admired their design enough to create their OWN version? And instead, they actually GAVE THEM some of their products? Who would've known that a company could be so MATURE and ungreedy? lol
